BOERS WAITING FOR BIG GUNS

Attack Then to Be Made On Ladysmith.

ENGLAND NOW LEANS ON GENERAL BULLER

People Confident He Will Wrest Victory From Defeat.

British Press Comments With Pleasure On Attitude of United States—Late Details Show That Bester's Hill Was Notable Triumph For English Arms—Buller Orders Evacuation of Stormberg—Investment of Ladysmith Reported.

London, Nov. 6.—The general belief in London is that the Boers are now waiting for more guns from Pretoria before attacking Ladysmith. The fact that Sir Redvers Buller appears to have ordered a retirement from Stormberg, and perhaps from other places, relieves to some extent the public mind, which otherwise would have been further alarmed. Confidence is felt in any measures that General Buller may deem desirable. The knowledge that the plan of the war is working has also come as a relief to the great anxiety previously felt.

The third-class cruiser Pelorus has been ordered from Gibraltar to Durban and the third-class cruiser Fearless from Port Said to the same point.

Dispatches from Cape Town and other centers in Cape Colony indicate that the Boers are becoming very restless in consequence of the Boer successes.

The Morning Post's Ladysmith correspondent, telegraphing Nov. 4, says: "We cannot understand the Boer tactics. It is inconceivable that they should have refrained from using their big guns this morning."

Commenting upon this dispatch, the Morning Post says: "It is easy to guess the reason why the Boers have been nonplussed by the arrival of the naval guns at Ladysmith. They are now getting a lost opportunity, as they might have cut the railway and thus prevented the appearance of those guns on the scene."

The Times, in a careful editorial today on the relations of the United States to the war in South Africa, says: "When the continent of Europe is divided into two camps, the English people to note the sympathy and intelligent comprehension manifested in the United States. We should prize American sympathy in any case, but it becomes doubly grateful when manifested based on a deliberate and well informed judgment of the essential merits of the quarrel, as well as upon a recognition of the kindly feelings with which Englishmen regard American enterprise."

The American people are not blinded by the accident that the Transvaal calls itself a republic. They know that every essential attribute of a republic is wanting; and they know also that England stands for equal laws, individual freedom and the energetic progress that together make up the republican ideal of the Americans. As England plumped for the United States, so the United States now plump for England, without regard to the drawn technicalities of the attorney."

It appears that the Boers have destroyed the railway as far down as Knapstad, eighteen miles south of Beaufort.

BESTER'S HILL FIGHT.

British Won Victory and Captured a Camp.

London, Nov. 5.—A special dispatch from Ladysmith describing Thursday's fighting says: "The artillery duel at dawn in which the Boers' guns were silenced, was intended to occupy the Boers and to enable Sir George Stewart White to achieve his chief purpose, the capture of the Boer camp behind Bester's hill."

For this purpose, the Lancers, Hussars, Natal Carbineers and Natal Cavalry started at dawn. General Buller, at sunrise and got within striking distance before the enemy was aware of their presence. A field battery was also sent and secured a position commanding the enemy's camp, which was a large one, laagered with arms, wagons and other vehicles.

Bester's hill was well fortified and provided with good guns. At 9 o'clock the British opened fire, the Boers replying with spirit, but bad aim. The British quickly sent a forty-two pound shell into the camp, inflicting terrible loss and spreading panic among the enemy. Our cavalry then stopped the position, the Boers being precipitately leaving mounds of dead and wounded men as the whole camp and equipment in the hands of the British. Their success will upset the plans of the Orange Free State commanders and possibly will prevent them moving to the British further trouble from the west."

SIEGE OF LADYSMITH.

Times Correspondent Says the Investment Now Is Complete.

London, Nov. 6.—The correspondent of the Times at Ladysmith, under date of Nov. 2, confirms the report of artillery exchanges. He says: "The investment of the town is now practically complete. Last night the enemy tapped the wires in our rear. He can therefore cut our communication whenever he chooses. It is suggested, however, that the Boers believe that Ladysmith is in their power and that they are therefore anxious to move us to get up all of our military stores before they attack us."

A reconnaissance by Lancers and a field battery today found a Free State laager, which the British shelled heavily, driving the Boers out."

STORMBERG ABANDONED.

Buller Orders Everything Removed Fifty Miles to Queenstown.

London, Nov. 6.—The Daily Mail publishes the following dispatch from Burgersdorp dated Nov. 5: "The large British camp at Stormberg Junction has been broken up today by order of Sir Redvers Buller. Everything, including guns, stores, tents and the usual paraphernalia of a camp, is being removed to Queenstown, about fifty miles southeast of Stormberg. An Orange Free State force, about 2,500 strong, with several guns, which for

GORY OUTLOOK IN OLD KENTUCKY

Marshals Make Ready For Bloody Election Day.

DISQUIETING RUMORS

ALARM THE PEOPLE

Militia Is Ordered to Hold Itself In Readiness.

Candidate McLean In Ohio Says That Hanna Is Beaten Sure, While the Republicans Also Claim the State With Certainty—Pennsylvania Conceded to Republicans—Tamm Many Expects to Sweep New York—Fight On Mazet.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 5.—Ante-election interest was heightened tonight by a report from Frankfort containing a hint of some action on the part of United States Marshal A. D. Jones, in connection with the state election. In view of widely circulated reports as to the possibility of trouble and even bloodshed next Tuesday, the report caused much speculation. It told of a letter said to have been received by Deputy Marshal McCarthy at Frankfort from Mr. Jones notifying him not to leave his post of duty Tuesday and to be in readiness to respond to orders by telegraph or telephone from federal headquarters at Louisville. This, it is said, was a copy of a circular sent to all deputy marshals in the state.

Colonel Mengel of the Louisville legion, the local organization of militia, tonight ordered company B to be in readiness for duty if called on. Feeling is intense, but it is generally so just before an election in Kentucky. The campaign vote will be cast tomorrow night in this city by Candidate Goebl and Governor Bradley.

POSTER CLAIMS STATE.

Ohio ex-Governor Says Nash Will Be Elected.

Cincinnati, Nov. 5.—The most significant event in the Ohio campaign since yesterday is the prediction made by ex-Governor Charles Foster, who has been speaking throughout the state. He estimates the total vote of the state at 575,000, of which Nash (Rep.), who is not less than 465,000; McLean (Dem.), not more than 410,000; and Jones (Non-partisan), and all others will divide the remainder.

It is also well known that Mr. Sherman has a serious feeling for President McKinley and Senator Hanna, and that he openly antagonizes the president's Philippine policy. Hence, Democratic papers have been publishing interviews and dispatches from ex-Senator Sherman, indicating his position in that regard. One of the latter, addressed to the editor of the Cincinnati Democratic paper, contains the following:

"I am strongly opposed to the enforced annexation of the Philippine islands. The seizure of any part of the Philippines against their will is an aggressive violation of the laws of nations."

It is claimed by Republicans that the alienation of Republicans who disagree with the administration on the Philippine question will be more than offset by the Democrats who believe in upholding the government and who oppose silver.

BOUETTE'S COMPLIMENTS.

Hopes Earnestly For Success of Nash In Ohio.

Bangor, Me., Nov. 5.—The Whig tomorrow will publish the following telegram from Congressman Bouette to George K. Nash, Republican candidate for governor of Ohio:

"Have been hoping all last moment that my recovery from a severe car-burn would be so rapidly complete as to enable me to take active part in your brilliant canvass, but being unable to do so, I send you greetings and assurance that New England was never more intensely anxious for decisive Republican victory than now in Ohio. The magnificent prosperity enjoyed by all sections, all industries and all classes under President McKinley's splendid administration, is assailed and imperiled by every vote cast against you and while our nation's flag is under fire on foreign soil, every patriot in the state of our commander-in-chief should stand by the government in maintaining the fruits of Dewey's glorious victory, vindicating the sovereignty that we have assumed by solemn treaty and establishing through congress the guarantee of that wise and progressive government to which we are pledged. As standard bearer in Ohio, you are repelling an assault upon our president and our flag. I am sure you will win as glorious a victory as those you have so often organized for other candidates in the past and I wish I could actively participate now in your personal triumph."

"G. A. BOUETTE."

HANNA IS BEATEN.

This Is How McLean Sums Up the Ohio Situation.

Cincinnati, Nov. 5.—John R. McLean, Democratic candidate for governor, gave the following address to voters at the Associated Press:

"Columbus, O., Nov. 5.—To the Voters of Ohio:

"But two days remain before the people of Ohio, by their ballots, give expression to their opinions on the issues before the public. After a most careful canvass, after a thorough look into the situation, bearing from every county, from nearly every township of the state, I believe that the Democratic
